This draft constitution is a proposed revision and has not been ratified by membership

Preamble

This fraternity shall be known as the Omicron Pi Omicron fraternity.

The purpose of this Fraternity shall be to promote harmony and good will among its members, to bind them together for mutual help and assistance, and to further their educational and social development.

Constitution

New Member Attestation

All new members shall be required to read the Constitution and By-Laws and sign the same in the presence of one of the officers within two weeks after initiation, unless excused by two-thirds vote of those present at a regular meeting. The officer before whom the signature was made shall also sign his name as witness.

Amendment

Amendments to this Constitution shall not become effective until formally adopted by three-fourths of the active members at two regular meetings of the Fraternity, due notice having been given that such amendment was to be voted on. Furthermore, it shall not become effective until ratified by majority (50% +1) of those Alumni members voting upon the proposition.

By-Laws

- A. By-Laws, covering matters not fully covered in this Constitution may be adopted by the Fraternity and it must also be adopted by four-sevenths of the Directors of the Alumni Council.
- B. A by-law may be proposed by any member and shall not become effective until it has been adopted by a three-fourths vote of all the active members present at two regular meetings of the Fraternity, due notice having been given that such By-Law was to be voted on. The same regulation shall apply to amendments or repeals of By-Laws.

Governance

Two (2) bodies guide the fraternity. The Alumni Council is focused on the organization in its entirety, and the Executive Board is focused on the active chapter.

Alumni Council

- A. In order that the Alumni (and Associate) members may effectively participate in the affairs of the Fraternity and cooperate with, assist and advise the Active Chapter, an Alumni Council is hereby authorized to be constituted, in the manner and to have the powers and duties hereinafter provided.
- B. The Alumni Council shall have power to act upon all matters of general interest to the Fraternity; to determine its general policies; to propose amendment to the Constitution and By-Laws, by a majority vote (50% +1) of its voting members; to exercise supervision over the affairs of the Active Chapter, whose finances, acts and policies shall be subject to the approval and direction of the Alumni Council.
- C. The Alumni Council shall consist of seven Directors of whom five shall be Alumni members of the Fraternity and two Active Members representing the Active Chapter.
- D. The officers of the Alumni Council shall consist of a President, a Vice-President and a Secretary-Treasurer, whose terms of office shall be for one year. The duty of the President shall be to preside at all meetings of the Alumni Council and to act in an advisory and supervisory capacity regarding the Active Chapter and to initiate and carry out action for the good of the Fraternity, with the advice and approval of the Alumni council in cases involving radical changes in policy or action. He shall countersign all checks or drafts involving payment of money by the Council. The Vice President shall assist the President, when requested and shall assume his duties in case the President is incapacitated or the office of President becomes vacant. He shall preside at all meetings of the Alumni Council, in the absence of the President.
- E. The seven Directors shall be elected for terms of one and two years, respectively, in such numbers that the terms of four of three Directors shall expire in alternate years.
- F. The president, The Vice President, and the Secretary-Treasurer shall be Alumni members and shall be Directors of the Alumni Council; and nominees therefore shall be chosen from the nominees for Directors or from Directors whose terms continue for the ensuing year.
- G. The three officers and the five Alumni Directors shall be elected by a plurality vote of the Alumni members voting by letter ballot or electronic means, as hereinafter provided.
- H. The two Director representing the Active Chapter shall be elected by it at the last regular meeting before the Annual Meeting of the Alumni Council.

- I. The terms of office of all officers and directors shall begin and end at the close of the annual meetings of the Alumni Council.
- J. Regular nominations of one nominee for each office and the requisite number of Alumni Directors shall be made by a nominating committee of three Alumni members, elected at the preceding annual meeting of the Alumni Council. They shall notify the secretary-treasurer of their nominations, in writing or electronic means, not later than March 1st of each year, and the Secretary- Treasurer shall mail or electronically submit ballots, containing such nominations to each Alumni member not later than April 1st of each year, with instructions for voting and stating that ballots will be canvassed at the annual meeting.
- K. Other nominations may be made, by petition signed by five or more Alumni members, if filed with or mailed/electronically submitted to the Secretary-Treasurer on or before May 1st, and if made, he shall promptly mail/electronically submit supplementary ballots, containing both the regular and the other nominations to all Alumni members, with instructions as above provided.
- L. The nominations for officers and Directors to be voted on simultaneously with the voting for adoption of this Amendment shall be made by petition and shall be mailed/electronically submitted and received by a Secretary pro-tempera.
- M. Mailed ballots shall be enclosed in plain, sealed envelope, with the voter's name written thereon for identification, and enclosed in another envelope, directed to the Secretary-Treasurer or to the Fraternity at Potsdam, N.Y. Electronic ballots will be sent to the Secretary-Treasurer. The ballots shall be canvassed by Secretary-Treasurer at the Annual Meeting of the Alumni Council.
- N. The Annual Meeting of the Alumni Council shall be held at Potsdam, N.Y. on Sunday preceding the Annual Commencement of Clarkson College. This meeting will also be accessible via electronic means as arranged by the Secretary-Treasurer. Special meetings may be called at any time and place by the President or by three Directors and similarly will be accessible by electronic means.
- O. All members of the Fraternity shall have the right to be present at and to address meetings of the Council.
- P. The Fraternity shall send each of the alumni and associate members mailed or electronic communications to be issued once each semester. These letters shall contain such information about the Fraternity and University which will be of interest to the graduate members. Alumni member shall designate their choice of communication with the Secretary-Treasurer.
- Q. The Alumni Secretary-Treasurer will oversee preparing these letters and electronic communications.
- R. The Alumni fund will finance postage as necessary.

The Executive Board

Composition

The Executive Board shall be composed of the Executive Officers. Defined as President, Vice-president and Secretary-Treasurer

Duties

- A. The Executive Board, with the approval of the membership, shall determine the policies of the Fraternity. Whenever possible, the Board shall, for the sake of expediency, discuss all Fraternity business before it is brought before the Active Chapter.
- B. The Executive Board shall present a report on the acts, affairs, and finances of the Active Chapter to the Alumni Council at the Annual Meeting of the Council.
- C. All decisions of the Executive Board shall be subject to the approval of the Active Chapter. The Executive Board shall act as a court for all members accused of offenses.

Meetings

Meetings of the Executive Board shall be held weekly at the discretion of the President. With the consent of the President meetings shall also be held at the request of any member of the fraternity when he has business to bring before the Board. Members of the fraternity who are not executive officers may attend meetings of the Executive Board only with the consent of the President.

Regular Meetings

Regular meetings must be held at least once each month for the duration of the school year.

Special Meetings

Special Meetings may be called at any time and place by the President.

The President must call a special meeting upon written petition by members. No business may be done at a special meeting except for that business for which the meeting was called.

Quorum

Two thirds the number of active members shall constitute a quorum to transact business. The quorum refers to the number present, not the number voting.

Voting

- A. Voting may be by acclamation, ballot, division, or raising the right hand. A mail or electronic ballot shall be constitutional only when school is not in session. Upon request of any three members, voting must be by secret ballot.

- B. A majority of the votes cast shall decide.

Membership

There are five (5) types of membership with differing privileges.

There shall be no pecuniary benefits attached to membership in this Fraternity except as may be voted by the members.

Membership may be withdrawn or suspended as an outcome of due process described elsewhere in this constitution.

Regular Membership

No one shall be eligible for regular membership except a male student of Clarkson University who meets the requirements of the University and of the interfraternity Council for membership in a social fraternity at Clarkson.

Regular Members shall share the secrets of the Fraternity, shall be regularly initiated into the Fraternity, shall have the privilege of attending meetings, and shall have a voice in the proceedings as described elsewhere.

The enrollment of the Fraternity shall be limited in accordance with the regulations of the interfraternity Council but shall vary with the needs and desires of the Fraternity.

New members may be chosen irrespective of class.

Regular Honorary Membership

Regular Honorary Membership may be conferred only on male members of the faculty of Clarkson College.

Regular Honorary Members shall be elected by the unanimous vote of those present at a regular meeting of the Active Chapter.

Regular Honorary Members shall share the secrets of the Fraternity, shall be regularly initiated into the Fraternity, and shall have the privilege of attending meetings. However, they shall have no voice in the proceedings except by permission of the membership.

Alumni Membership

Regular Members who graduate or leave school shall be called Alumni Members.

Alumni Members shall have the same privileges as Regular Honorary Members. In addition, they shall have the right to vote on changes in the Constitution or Ritual, for members, officers, and directors of the Alumni Council, and on any matters directly concerning the Alumni.

Special Honorary Membership

Special Honorary Membership may be conferred upon any person who is not a male member of the student body or of the faculty of Clarkson College.

Special Honorary Membership shall be restricted to those whom the Active Chapter deem worthy of special recognition.

Special Honorary Members shall not be formally initiated into the Fraternity, shall not share the secrets of the Fraternity, and shall not have any voice in the proceedings of the Fraternity.

Associate Membership

Graduates or former students who are members of another fraternity represented at Clarkson University may be elected Associate Members by unanimous vote of the Active Chapter and the Alumni Council.

Associate Members shall have the same privileges as Special Honorary Members.

Duties of Members

In addition to those duties imposed by the obligation and charged upon the candidate at initiation, members are expected to be present at all meetings whenever possible, also to contribute their share towards the expenses of the Fraternity, to assist worthy brethren in need or distress, and to keep the proper officers of the Active Chapter informed of all things which may affect the welfare of the Fraternity.

Benefits

There shall be no pecuniary benefits attached to membership in this Fraternity except as may be voted by the members.

Selection of Members

- B. Before a ballot may be taken, a member must have spoken in favor of the candidate, and a summary of his academic record must have been given.
- C. Discussion of each candidate shall be limited to fifteen minutes. However, this time may be extended at the request of a member and with the consent of the or a majority of the members present.
- D. After discussion a vote will be taken for each candidate. A three-fourths affirmative vote is necessary from voting members for a candidate to be extended a bid. A “blackball” vote may be exercised by any voting member to eliminate a candidate from consideration.

Bids

- A. A person who has been elected to become a member and who accepts a bid to pledge the Fraternity is subject to being voted on again at any time. A new ballot must be taken whenever a member requests one. If in any ballot a person is rejected he will be depledged.
- B. A candidate who has been rejected shall be reconsidered upon the submission of a written petition signed by two-thirds of the membership. This petition must be submitted and acted on within 48 hours from the time of the original rejection. If such a petition is not submitted, or if it is rejected, a revote may not be proposed again for two months from the date of the rejection.

Special Meetings may be called at any time and place by the President.

The President must call a special meeting upon written petition by members. No business may be done at a special meeting except for that business for which the meeting was called.

Initiation

Pledging

Prospective initiate, upon being pledged, shall be given mandates at frequent intervals up to the time of his initiation, requiring him to perform certain feats, details of said feats to be left to the discretion of the Pledge Master.

Formal Initiation

After successfully completing the pledging requirement for membership in Omicron Pi Omicron duly sworn in members will be expected to abide by the following:

- A. I will ever keep, and never reveal, any of the secrets belonging to the Fraternity except to a worthy Brother, or within the open Chapter, and then only when I have found him or them justly entitled to receive the same after due trial or lawful information.
- B. I do also sincerely swear that I will always help aid or assist a worthy Brother, he applying to me as such and I finding him worthy and in need of assistance, I being able to do so without inflicting greater injury, upon myself than would be inflicted upon him should I fail to assist him.
- C. I do also sincerely swear, that I will use my best efforts and means to promote the welfare of this Fraternity and its members, and be ever ready to defend them from unjust attacks and oppression, while engaged in honorable pursuits.
